Cheery Chowder

Search Request from Visitors to Old Recipe Detective Blog or Heritage Recipes

Request: "About fifteen years ago, I got a recipe out of Cosmopolitan magazine (I think) called Cheery Chowder. It had ham, cheese, broccoli, potatoes, cream, etc. I have lost the original recipe and wanted to know if any of your readers remembered it. IT WAS SO GOOD! I have written to Cosmo to see if it was archived, but haven't heard back from them. I hope someone else in web-land happened across this recipe many years ago and was smart enough to hang on to it. If you remember Cheery Chowder, please email me."

Saute first 4 ingredients for 10 min. Add flour, stir in half-and-half and broth. Cook until slightly thickened. Add cheese, broccoli, ham, Worcestershire, carrots and corn. Add salt and pepper to taste. Heat--DO NOT BOIL!

Cheery Chowder, From Colleen

Serves 6

1 garlic clove, minced
1 onion, chopped fine
1 cup sliced mushrooms
3 TBL light butter
3 TBL flour
2 cups fat-free half-and-half
13-3/4 oz can fat-free, low-sodium chicken broth
1 lb low-fat sharp Cheddar, grated
6 oz smoked ham, julienned
1 tsp Worcestershire sauce
1 cup fresh broccoli florets, cooked but still crisp
1 cup sliced carrots, cooked but still crisp
3/4 cup cooked corn kernels

In a large saucepan, saute garlic, onion and mushrooms in butter over low heat, stirring occasionally, for 10 minutes or until onions are soft. Add flour and blend over low heat for 1 minute. Slowly stir in half-and-half and chicken broth and cook, stirring, until slightly thickened and smooth. Simmer 2 minutes. Gradually add grated Cheddar, blending until cheese melts. Add ham, Worcestershire sauce, broccoli, carrots, corn and seasonings. Heat chowder over moderately low heat until hot. Do not boil. Serve hot.
